Narrative Description of Project: The Government of Uganda had in 2007 initiated a range of different reforms of public sector management. Danida had previously supported a several discrete projects with particular emphasis on support to decentralization but sought a more coherent and integrated approach to future support to Uganda's reforms.
Description of Actual Services Provided by Your Staff: Design of Programme for Danish support to Uganda's public sector management reforms. The agreed Programme included three components (a) overall Public Sector Management Reform Coordination through the Office of the Prime Minister, (b) Support for decentralization through the Ugandan Local Government Sector Investment Plan led by the Ministry of Local Government and (c) Support for Public Service Reform led by the Ministry of Public Service. The team consulted with stakeholders and developed draft Programme document for Danida and Government of Uganda appraisal
